

A group of 13 people posing for a group photo in front of a building. The group is arranged in two rows. In the back row, six people are standing: three men in white jackets with 'MINOR CITY' logos and two women, one in a red shirt and one in a white jacket. In the front row, seven people are kneeling or sitting on the ground. From left to right: a man in a white jacket, a man in a bright yellow-green shirt, a man in a black jacket holding two certificates, a man in a white hoodie holding a certificate, a man in a dark grey shirt holding a certificate, a man in a blue jacket holding a large trophy, a man in a grey jacket holding a certificate, and a man in a black hoodie holding a certificate. The certificates are white with green borders and contain text in Chinese. The trophy is large and ornate with a red and white ribbon. The building behind them is grey with a curved section on the left and a flagpole on the right. There are trees and bushes in the background.
